Re: MUR-6562

Dear Mr. Jordan:

This response to MUR 6562 is from me and the Treasurer Paul B. Haring for Congress Committee. I did not receive the MUR until June 1, 2012.

I was a candidate for United States Representatives in Texas in 2010 for Texas District 15 and I was a candidate for United States Representative in 2012 for Texas District 34. I am no longer a candidate as I did not win or make the runoff in the Texas Republican Primary election held May 29, 2012.

In 2010, I filed with the Federal Election Commission FEC Forms 1 and 2 and filed the required report or reports. For the 2012 election I did not fill out or file FEC Forms 1 and 2 or any reports as there was no legal obligation to do so because the campaign activity for my 2012 campaign for U.S. Representative did not exceed $5,000 in either contributions or expenditures.

For my candidacy in the 2012 campaign there were no signs, newspaper ads, Internet ads, television ads, radio ads, mass mailings or robo calls. I did receive considerable free publicity from news stories about the election.

Sincerely,

Paul B. Haring
